

MATERIAL PROPERTY DATA SHEET

Standard Coir Logs

Temporary • Biodegradable • Coconut Fiber •
Sediment Control Device • USA made

DESCRIPTION

Western Green Coir Logs are sediment control devices for the minimization of accelerated erosion and the resulting sedimentation. Coirs logs are made from coir fiber bound by a high strength netting and have a functional longevity of two to five years. Coir logs are recommended for low energy sites such as ponds and streams, and other concentrated flow areas. The Coir logs are made from the highest quality coir available on the market. Western Green's certifies this product to be free from defects and to meet the physical properties below. The Standard Coir logs are made in the USA.

RE: Certification of Conformance and Delivery for COIR LOG-Standard

To Whom it May Concern:

This document has been drafted to provide certification as to the origin, properties and delivery of COIR LOG-Standard, a straw wattle. COIR LOG-Standard is produced by Western Green (WG). Each wattle is subjected to regular inspection and testing in accordance with the WG Quality Assurance Program. Properties and specifications of the material are provided on document number WG_MPDS_COIR LOG-Standard, attached as reference. Installation documentation may be found at www.westerngreen.com.

Since most WG products are sold to distributors and stocked, WG is typically unable to certify material type or quantity delivered to the project/project site. However, space is provided below for distributor/contractor certification of materials delivered to the project/project site.

To the best of our knowledge, the information included is accurate.
